

Antioch Gr. School Asks—Tax Hike

On September 18, 1971, the Board of Education of Antioch Consolidated Grade School District No. 34 is asking for an increase of 12.5cents in the Building Maintenance Tax Rate. Two reasons are listed to prove the need for the increase: the inflationary spiral and the fact that per-child tax receipts have decreased.

General salaries for maintenance have increased 58% since 1965, and insurance costs for buildings operated by the district have risen 40% since the same year. Other costs which have been caught up in the inflationary spiral are electricity, water, gas and general custodial supplies.

In the same period the amount of revenue per child collected through the building maintenance fund has decreased from $75 per child to approximately $65.

On June 30, 1970, District No. 34 was $60,994 in the red in the Building Maintenance Fund. On June 30, 1971, this figure was increased by $57,934, making a total deficit of $118,928.

Mr. Henry Meyer, Superintendent of District No. 34 pointed out that the budget for the year 1971-72 will add another anticipated deficit of $59,800 for a total deficit by July 1, 1972, of $178,728. "While this is not as large as the national debt," Mr. Meyer stated, "it scares us! We feel we must ask for this 12.5cents tax increase to help us and your children."

Anyone interested in voting by absentee ballot for the Grade School referendum may do so at the Central Office on Highview Drive between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. on September 14, 15, and 16.

SEARS - ANTIOCH

SEARS, ROEBUCK and CO.'s new catalog and retail appliance store in the Antioch Shopping Plaza, Orchard and Hillside, in Antioch officially opened at 10 a.m. on Thursday, September 2.

Prior to the grand opening Sears display experts and store employees had rushed final preparations for the opening, including the arranging of merchandise in the sales departments and completing details for a brief opening ceremony and reception for visitors.

Russell Hackert, newly appointed manager of the Antioch store, and his staff welcomed opening-day visitors with a coffee and refreshments reception.

Sears - Antioch features a large appliance department offering television-radio-stereo sets, refrigerators, home freezers, dehumidifiers, washers, dryers, electric and gas ranges, and other modern household equipment.

Prominent also in the new sales unit is the spacious catalog order desk. Here a customer may order any of the 140,000 merchandise items in the Sears Catalog. And delivery is so prompt, Manager Hackert says, that two-day service can be expected on most items under normal conditions.

Described on one of the company's most modern and complete appliance and catalog sales facilities, Sears - Antioch will be under the administrative direction of the Waukegan department store. Complete repair and maintenance services is, of course, available to residents of Antioch and other county areas.

The new store will be open from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, and 9:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Saturday.

Manager Hackert, who is a major in the Marine Corps Reserve, joined Sears six years ago. For the past several months, he has been on special assignment at the Waukegan store.

"We know that our friends in the Antioch area will find our new store to be a welcome addition to the community and that it will provide them with improved shopping convenience and service," Mr. Hackert said.

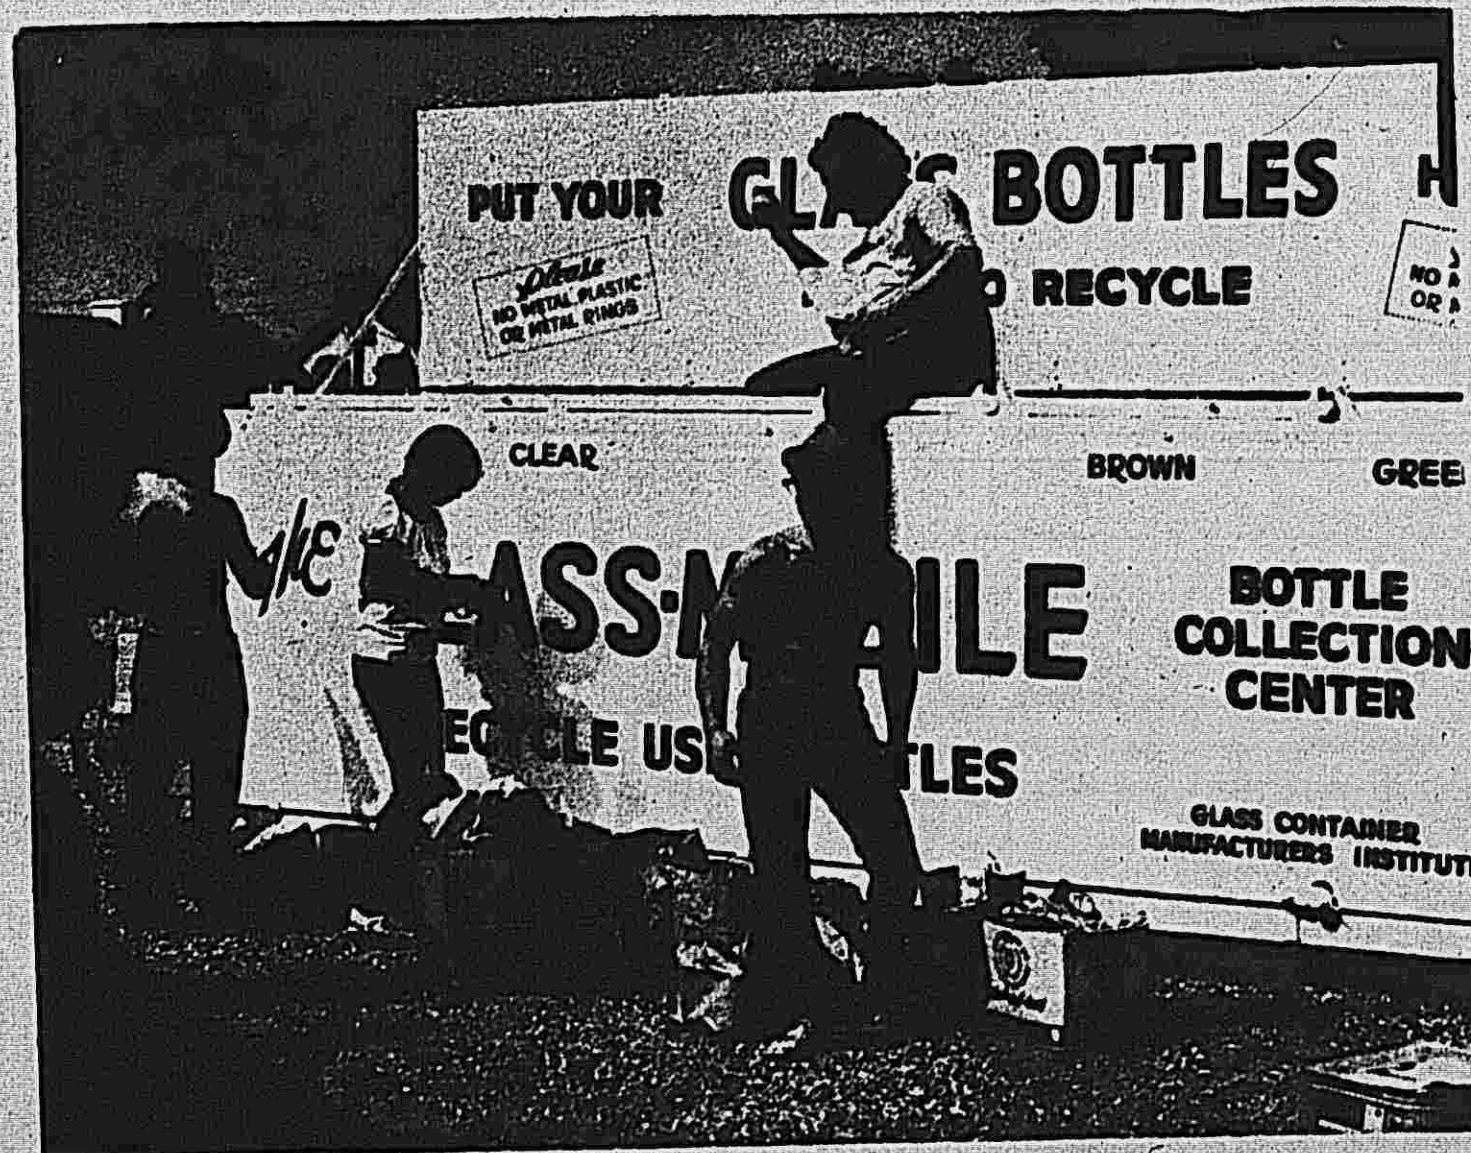

Antioch Tops Cancer Crusade Goal

MRS. WILLIAM BROOK and MR. PRESTON RECKERS who served as Crusade Chairmen for the American Cancer Society, Lake County Unit, announced today that Antioch has gone over the top of their 1971 Crusade Goal.

"All of the Cancer Crusaders were very dedicated in their efforts to reach our goal of $1,800.00, and have actually raised $2,679.00 this year", said Mrs. Brook, the Residential Crusade Chairman.

"The Crusaders want to raise the funds to continue the battle against Cancer, which strikes 2 out of 3 families. By working to fight Cancer, they could save the life of a member of your family, their family, or my family", added Mr. Reckers, the Independent Business Chairman.

They were very pleased with the results of this year's Crusade. They feel this is Antioch's part to WIPE OUT CANCER IN YOUR LIFETIME. The funds raised will support the American Cancer Society programs of Research, Education, and Service.

TEACHER WAGE/PRICE FREEZE EXPLAINED

Mr. Henry Meyer, Superintendent of the Antioch Consolidated Grade School District, has released to staff members of Dist. 34 a copy of a statement issued by the law offices of Norman and Billick and released through the offices of the County Superintendent. The opinion from Norman & Billick is an attempt to interpret the wage/price freeze as it affects teachers whose boards of education had granted them wage hikes prior to the establishment of controls.

According to Mr. Meyer, "In my opinion, this statement does not permit us to pay personnel on a new schedule unless they worked at least one day on the new schedule prior to August 15."

As a result of this opinion, the teaching staff at Antioch Grade School will be paid on the basis of the 1970-71 contract for the duration of the wage/price freeze.

Mr. Meyer kept the door open for further discussion when he stated in his cover letter, "If the Teacher's Association receives information which appears to contradict my interpretation of the attached letter, I suggest you contact me as a group to see what steps of clarification can be taken. Otherwise," he continued, "we have no alternative but to hold (teachers) to last year's salaries.....I'm sorry."

Teachers at Antioch Grade School had negotiated a new contract for the school year 1971-72. Implementation of the new contract following the release of wage controls has not yet been determined.

First National Bank Will Break Ground Saturday

Coffee and Donuts for adults and a treasure hunt for children will highlight the ground breaking ceremony for the FIRST NATIONAL BANK on Saturday, September 11 at 10 a.m.

Prior to the official ground breaking the officers and directors of the bank will host a champagne breakfast at Paty's Lounge for village officials and others who will take part in the ceremonies.

Children who wish to participate in the treasure hunt will be divided into two groups determined by age: a group for children 4 - 7 years old and another for young people 8 - 12.

There will be additional gifts for children and adults.

The new location of the First National Bank of Antioch will be on the North side of Lake Street, West of the new Ben Franklin store.

Our Congressman

When the Inter-Parliamentary Union opens its 59th Conference this week in Paris, France, parliamentary delegates from some 67 nations will be on hand to discuss a variety of problems of common interest.

The United States Delegation headed by Congressman Edward Derwinski of Illinois also will include Senators Mike Mansfield of Montana, Hugh Scott of Penn., the Majority and Minority Leaders respectively of the U. S. Senate, as well as the House Majority Leader, Representative Hale Boggs of Louisiana, and some 10 or 12 other Members of the House and Senate including this Member of Congress.

Following the opening ceremonies at the Versailles Palace, the delegates will gather in the French National Assembly to "debate" the 72 page Report of the Union's Secretary-General. This Report covers the problems of armed conflict in the areas of Indochina, Pakistan and the Middle East. However, it relates primarily to questions of (a) international trade and economic problems, (b) threats to the human environment, (c) the implications of satellite television systems, (d) cooperative measures designed to meet great world disasters of flood and earthquake, and other subjects of international concern. These are prominent on the agenda of the 10-day conference.

This Member of Congress will devote primary attention to the international implications resulting from the rapidly developing systems of communications by satellite by which telephone messages and television programs are transmitted around the world.

The formal draft resolution pending before the IPU Conference makes a broad declaration of cooperation and support for the development of international systems of communication "so that all people may enjoy the economies and advantages of satellite broadcasting." The resolution favors "developing through appropriate international organizations, the exchange of television programs by satellite." It also expresses the hope that the major systems will provide programs on "educational, cultural, scientific and sporting events with the object of increasing mutual trust among nations and bringing nations closer together."

The issue would seem to be without controversy. However, with the one party Parliaments of the communist nations (some 15 such nations are in attendance at the IPU Conference), it is expected that demands will be made to bar television programs from their countries unless they are approved in advance by their governments. Our U.S. Delegation is maintaining a position favoring a "free flow of information" including the right to broadcast programs with which we, as Americans, are in sharp disagreement.

The final result of the 59th Conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union may not be sensational or earth-shaking, and it is doubtful that many headlines will be created. However, the patient and deliberative work of the representatives at this Conference is bound to result in greater international understanding and should increase the chances for an enduring peace in the world.

NOTICE

PM&L, Inc., will hold its annual meeting on Sunday, Sept. 12, 1971, at the PM&L Theatre, 877 Main St., Antioch, Ill., at 8:00 p.m. Committee reports will be presented and election of officers will be held. Positions to be filled are those of president, secretary and board positions. Members should be prepared to pay dues prior to the official start of the meeting.

EDITORIAL

This is directed to the people of Antioch. I am referring to the people who make their homes here, who make a living here, the people who are permanent members of our community. You are the people who should have the greatest interest in what is going on in our village.

Do you know that our village is growing? Yes, most of you do and the question is really sort of foolish, but the results of this growth are not foolish and if we, the members of the community, do not become more aware of what this growth means, it could have a rather unpleasant result.

I am sure most of you know of the problems our village is having. They're fairly much the same problems all small towns have during a growth period. We have some sewer and water problems, the village board has been working on this and making headway; we have, and will have more, traffic and parking problems; we have had some zoning problems and will have more. We need more new industry in the community to help support our growth and we are having problems in education, mainly lack of funds and lack of space.

NOW THE POINT IS: if you are aware that these problems exist, and I am sure most of you do, what can you do to help? The following seven points might serve as a guide:

1. Acquaint yourself with each problem our village has -- become knowledgeable.
2. Be aware of the workings of your village board, zoning board, and high school and grade school boards of education.
3. Visit your schools -- join parent groups, become aware of the needs of education in Antioch -- whether you have children in school or not.
4. Don't find fault with school boards, teachers, or village officials unless you are ready and willing to help find the answers. I don't mean just talk about it but willing to work for it.
5. Don't assume that our officials can do the job without your help. You helped elect them, why not help them do the job.
6. If you do criticize, make sure the criticism is constructive and is meant to help. Criticism that is founded on personal feelings and is without the support of fact or reason is a waste of time and of no help to anyone.

7. Our last point is a MUST: DEVELOP ELECTION-AWARENESS. Everyone turns out to elect a new national government or a president, but how many turn out for a school board election, school referendum, or an election of village or township trustees, etc.? Not many. And this is sad, because it is

Letters to the Editor

Concerned citizen

On Monday evening, Aug. 30th, two Antioch High School girls were driving home from Antioch after a pre-school shopping tour of the Antioch stores. The girls were traveling on Grass Lake Road around 7:30 p.m.--when a "dark red" Chevrolet Impala--probably a 1967 model, passed them--turned in front of them in a diagonal manner and stopped, blocking the road, so they had to make a quick stop. Before the girls knew what was happening, three young men in "hippy attire" ran to the car--opened the car door and grabbed the girls' purses, and ran back to their car where two companions were waiting, and sped off.

The girls tried to get the license number, but didn't have the speed to catch them. The boys threw the purses out the window after emptying them of some $34.00 in cash, and the girls retrieved their purses, minus the money.

Just what kind of a society are we living in? What kind of "men" or boys, are these who would rob defenseless girls?? The girls were told that two other such incidents were reported to the police that same evening.

While this type of antic is going on in our area, it is wise to make sure that your car doors are locked when traveling and to be alert to others who might be in trouble....and take down license numbers of possible wrong-doers.

When any of these characters are caught, the law should be tough on them. It is a pretty sad state of affairs if people are not safe on the roads and open to hi-jackers at 7:30 in the evening.

"Concerned"

(Name withheld on request)

(Editors note: The Sheriff and Antioch Police have a record of the incident and the Sheriff's office are putting on a special extra patrol of the area--so something is being done. The authorities are concerned.)

What is the truth?

In October of 1970, the 37 members of the Lake County Board of Supervisors voted unanimously to hire Mr. William Maxey as head of the Building and Zoning Department of Lake County. Why have a majority of them changed their minds? Or, have they? the public wants to know.

Many citizens, other taxpayers, and constituents wondered what the true story was in September, 1970, at the firing or dismissal of Mr. Joe Cannon (then head of the Lake County Building and Zoning Department) and Mr. William Baskins. The true facts have not been explained to the citizens of Lake County. Now, the local election that has the most direct effect on all of us.

I am sure many of you can come up with as many or more ways in which you can help our growing community. By no means did I mean that the above ideas are the only ways we can be of use, but at least they're a start.

All communities have problems. In fact, our problems are small compared to some. If we take an active interest in all the affairs of our village our problems will remain small.

about a year later, we are again in the midst of firing the head of the Building and Zoning Department.

This position must be chaired by a man who is going to live up to and enforce "The Building Codes and The Zoning Ordinance," and not bend to the pressures of political patronage and wheelers and dealers. Mr. Maxey has already proved he does not bend to the pressures or wheel and deal.

At this time, each Supervisor should be able to honestly explain to his/her inquiring constituents the real motivation for the "ax" on this department, and on other departments in the future, should this occur again.

We are all being made aware of developers and land-grabbers coming into Lake County. Who are they and what are they going to develop, and how and what are they going to build? How is each citizen in the County going to be affected and protected by this population explosion and growth? Will this growth be in accord with the County Zoning Ordinance and capably enforced by a competent man such as Bill Maxey and his staff? (The Zoning Ordinance is dubbed as the County's Bible on all zoning matters.) Without such leadership in this department, is your property and county going to be devaluated by "slipshod enforcement" to some, and "strictly toe the line" to others?

Surely, anyone who can enlighten the Lake County public with facts about their County Government should speak up now, before the ballots are cast for disaster. Let's hear from the 37 County Board Supervisors as to "Who, What, When, Where, Why, and How?" before September 14, or before the firing or hiring of County personnel.

We should know the truth and be informed. This is our County.

Help to establish HOT-LINE

The KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS are interested in helping to establish a central emergency number 911 in all sections of Illinois.

This number could be a central switchboard to handle all type of emergency calls which would be transferred to a qualified person to handle such a call. A person needing help would be assured of talking with a qualified person belonging to a legitimate agency.

Many people are unable to talk with anyone because of their pride. A person does not have to worry about being identified when calling this number.

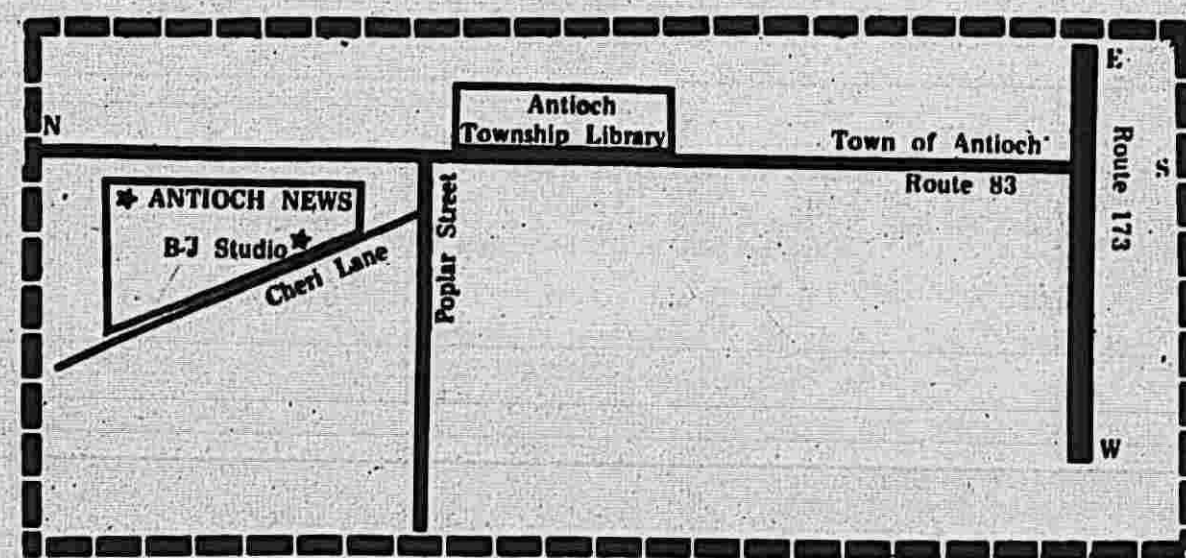

St. Louis has 70 sets of digits when dialed, will offer varying aspects of drug counseling. This number would handle all calls those not needing professional help; but need someone to talk with could be transferred to a local hot-line. The Knights of Columbus take their hats off to Oak Park, Maywood, Waukegan, and Mt. Prospect hot lines. This also goes for all hot-lines.

Is there economical or political reasons why such a number couldn't be started in Illinois. We can pay a man $600.00 a week to work on the Dan-Ryan. Every life is important to us from the ghetto to upper class suburbia.

Many drug programs have failed because scarce tactics were used to present the program. We have found that using speakers from Gateway has been very successful since the younger people will listen to them. We are also concerned with the housewife who has to take five or six pills to get through her normal day; and the businessman who needs pills or alcohol to get through his day. The KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS are against self destruction no matter the means.

Could you help us in any way to find out if such a number could be established in Illinois?

Sincerely,
Ronald J. Bold

Fountain of Wisdom

By Andrew Kalnik

The feature story this week is a story written by a member of our Antioch community, Mr. Andrew Kalnik. And a highly unusual man he is —

Although a steel worker by trade, Mr. Kalnik spent the past 60 years studying languages. At the age of 80 he can read and understand 85-90 languages and he speaks more than seven of them. Mr. Kalnik has devised a master plan for simplifying the English language and understanding all languages.

The story THE FOUNTAIN OF WISDOM is, in large part, his story, the story of his life.

As we found him recently, Mr. Kalnik is selling his home and moving to New York. We are sorry that we didn't meet you sooner, Mr. Kalnik. The story will be printed in parts, so be sure to get all issues of the paper to read the complete story.

THE FOUNTAIN OF WISDOM

(concluded from Sept 1 issue)

From then on our lives gradually resumed their normal, unobtrusive flow in their usual channels. The teeth and the cap no longer played such an important role in our family relationship. We had forgotten them and we forgot their prophetic implications until a letter from father, who had been in America for some time, evoked them from oblivion and compelled us to think about them once more. Father wanted me to come to him and he was sending me a steamship ticket from the Missler Travel Agency in Bremen, and some spending money for the trip. To us it seemed a clear indication that the first part of the prophecy, spoken of by Gajdosik, the Wiser, was about to be fulfilled: I was going to go to the land beyond the horizon in search of my fortune....

Thus I came to America before I was twelve years old. I worked in plate glass factories, in steel mills, and when the first World War broke out, I enlisted in the NG Regiment of Brooklyn, N.Y. I went to France with the U.S. Expeditionary Forces, and remained in Germany with the Army of Occupation until 1919. I returned home unscathed. Apparently my luck, "swaying between good and bad," also held fast.

One year after I was honorably discharged from the Army, I moved to Chicago. I married in the meantime and had a successful family life, but nothing exceptional happened one way or the other: I lived the life of the average citizen, in full conformity of the prophecy. I was getting old. Sometimes I bitterly resented the equivocal implications of the prophecy that haunted me all my life, yet I could not totally ignore it.

As a machine operator I worked for a large manufacturing company, known all over the world for the excellent quality of its plumbing products, until I went on pension. After being pensioned, I sold my house in Chicago, and had one built in Wisconsin, not far from a small lake. Not realizing it at that time, I had moved into the "region of many eyes of the sea," where I was to find the fountain of wisdom.

Then, one day, thinking about it, it occurred to me that, precisely, this was the "region of the many eyes of the sea," the promised land that I was seeking, but I couldn't decide which of the four states — Illinois, Wisconsin, Michigan or Minnesota (all of which are richly endowed with lakes, lagoons and other water resources) — was the true "region" of the prophecy that appeared to the village seer at the time of our encounter with him.

I was anxious to find out. I, like Solomon, had only one ambition: to attain wisdom and to be just. I longed to discover the fountain promised me at my birth and I wanted to drink of its contents to the full extent of my mental and spiritual capacity.

The mysterious forces that regulate the fate of men and nations, unknowingly to them, came to my aid soon after. I had a dream. I dreamt that I saw a two story frame house, painted light-gray, with five wooden steps and a small platform in front of it, and that four Indians — three men and one woman in white man's clothes — came out of the house and stopped on the steps. Two of the men stood on the third step up, and one of them with the squaw remained on the platform, and that all looked at me.

I stood several paces away to one side and in front of the building. A small Indian boy, six or seven years old, approached me and offered me his hand. I took it and shook it good naturedly. While I still held it, he addressed me and said in English: "Come and live with us; you will be happy there." His face was exceedingly white and fair, and I, at that time, didn't think that he belonged to the Indian race.

The picture disappeared. I woke up. At the very first conscious moment an idea occurred to me: The Menominees! The Water People! Through this mysterious messenger of their good will, who appeared to me in a dream, they offered me to come among them and spend my remaining days with them in peace. Manito, their reigning Great Spirit, willed it so and sent this message to me.

Yes, of course! This is it... Wisconsin! The "region of many eyes of the sea," the land of the sky blue waters!

Why didn't I think of it before?"

After this apparition, more than ever, I was determined to find my fountain. I traveled a whole lot, I criss-crossed the state in my car from one end to the other, closely examining every lake and water hole along the way, looking for the tell-tale signs by which I could recognize it and claim it as my own. But I had no luck; my search was in vain...

I felt greatly disappointed. I wanted to lose the memory of the predictions of the peasant women and prophecies of the wizard with which I used to lull myself to sleep many nights, about which I used to dream in the daytime, and which became an inseparable part of my consciousness and my being...

"Superstitions! Pure and simple... Wisdom, fame, riches! Bah! What good are they to an old, wearied man?" I thought in disgust. Being in a dejected mood, I was about to put an end to all that nonsense by imposing on myself a strict mental aloofness regarding the doubtful value of my birthright when the whirl of a low flying aeroplane intruded on my senses and interrupted the line of my thinking. It was one of the bushwhacking pilots, hired by a real estate company to fly some of its officials in an aerial survey of the land to locate a suitable site for a new subdivision.

"Now I remember!" I declared with a subdued sense of understanding. "I remember now! Didn't the sage of the village say something about the vision from the air? Didn't he say 'He will see it from the sky?'"

That was it! Within several days of this incident I went to the real estate offices and arranged to go up in the plane the next trip. For hours we flew over the worn out hills, the lakes and the dales of Wisconsin. Looking down, searching for the clump of trees and the pool with the divine attributives...

We found it... It was located in the center of an oak grove, surrounded on all sides to a considerable distance in all directions by trees, forming a protective belt that seemed to have been planted there to hide its sanctity from undesirable intrusions.

The next day I and the real estate agent drove to the place as far as we could go, and through the virgin growth of the forest we made our way to the pool on foot.

During the several succeeding months, the purchase of the pool and the surrounding woodlands was concluded to my satisfaction. When I held the deed to the property in my hands for the first time, I felt a wave of gladness surging through my body which, for a few moments, deprived me of all sense of rational behavior and responsibility. I burst out in a loud, hysterical and uncontrollable laughter... The fountain, after so many years of hoping, yearning, disappointments and frustrations was finally, my own...

I engaged a contractor and had him cut a clearance and build a road through the woods. Upon the completion of the road, I consulted an architect and asked him to draw preliminary sketches of the buildings I planned to erect on the site.

"This is the place I dreamed all my life to own," I told the builder while we were en route with a truck loaded with the materials I had ordered. As I sat alongside the driver, I held my hand now on a two-by-four, now on a clapboard, feeling all the while as if a current of reciprocal mystic sympathy and understanding circulated between the dead matter and myself. For the first time in my life I was really happy...

Arriving at last at the site, I rushed to the pool, leaving the truck on the road, and, to my stupefying consternation and dismay, I found the pool empty! Empty of water — dry!

The hurricane that raged over the region the night before, forced the water against the cliff and by constant strong action of the lashing waves, washed the gravel away and found the old channel of the underground river through which the water disappeared...

EPILOG.

There isn't much more to tell, but if it isn't told, the story won't be complete. "Silent" Joe, from whom I heard it, had a modest fishing resort at a small lake not far from US 45 in Wisconsin. He entertained us with references to his life's experiences while we were sitting in the shade of one of his weeping willow trees one day in summer of 1965, sipping "black-cows" to which his wife treated us. After a short pause, he seemed to fall into his usual uncommunicative mood again and I, anxious to learn of the final outcome of the prophecy, asked:

"What happened to the fountain?" "Oh, he never went back," answered his wife obliquely for him. "He told the driver to dump the lumber anyplace and came home with him. The fishermen, picknickers and campers carried it off piece by piece. The water returned in about a year's time."

Joe died shortly after. They buried him in his dream "land beyond the horizon," among the many eyes of the sea...

Along the Way with

Ah - the silence is deafening! School started! Up in the morning - out with the kids - and oh-that second cup of coffee! Summer is great and such a pleasure to have the homes bustling with laughter and noise, but by September a change is nice.

The SEARS - ANTIOCH grand opening was a big success. A nice feather in our cap to have a Sears store in Antioch.

MRS. MYRTLE HUFEN-DICK of Santa Ana, California was a house guest of MR & MRS JOSEPH HORTON during the month of August. While she was here they visited MR & MRS LAVERNE HANCOCK of Fond du lac, Wis.

Misery is a flat tire in the middle of Main Street on a Friday evening. huh!!!

MARY DeSTEFANO - one of our "lady librarians" spent a couple of days in Victory Hospital. Glad to hear everything is A-OK and a speedy recovery.

Our Condolences to the DICK KESSLERS' on the death of his father.

Final plans are being made for the ANTIOCH LITTLE LEAGUE banquet. It will be on Sept. 20 at 7:00 p.m. at the Bristol Oaks Country Club. There is much to celebrate since the boys did so well this season.

"Circle to the right - and an alamend-left". Yes, the Square Dance Club is starting its fall season. The club had a pool party at the Aqua Center this August. The calling could be heard for quite a ways. Almost had an uninvited guest. Sounded like such fun.

Speaking of pool parties... Hear tell we had a 1st at a recent pool part. --a nude male-- A quote from one of the spectators was "Who said all men are created equal".

The Colony House

This famous small country restaurant is located at the junction of two country roads bordering rich Wisconsin farm lands and the neat residential community of Rock Lake. THE COLONY HOUSE is nestled into the corner of Trevor Road and Wisconsin Road JF, one mile north and one mile west of Antioch.

The new owners, Mr. and Mrs. Puryear, have just celebrated the anniversary of their first year of operation. The Puryears have been in the restaurant business all their lives, mostly in the Chicago area. They specialize in gourmet cooking and feature fresh vegetables with every meal and home baked breads and pastries.

The new owners have preserved the home-like Early American atmosphere of THE COLONY HOUSE. The dining room overlooks a shaded lawn with one of the largest weeping willow trees in southeastern Wisconsin. It is bordered by a small creek which provides a pleasant view summer and winter. A generous selection of well prepared meals is offered and graciously served by pleasant waitresses in Colonial costume. Of special interest are the many early American antique furnishings. A cheery fireplace with logs crackling on the hearth welcomes the diner during the winter months.

For the utmost in home-style food served in an elegant early American atmosphere visit THE COLONY HOUSE, "a favorite dining place for over thirty years."

ANTIOCH YOUTH SAVES A LIFE

Debbie Reeder, an ACHS senior, can be credited with saving a life this weekend.

Debbie, who lives on Grass Lake, was in her boat last Saturday when she saw two men spill out of their power boat. The craft circled wildly, hitting the older of the two men, a Mr. Ault of Franklin Park, Ill. Debbie somehow managed to get Mr. Ault into her boat, onto shore, and into the Deyone home. Sheets were cut up and a tourniquet applied to stop the bleeding from several cuts Mr. Ault had sustained. The Rescue Squad took Mr. Ault to Victory Memorial Hospital for emergency surgery.

Ault's 17 year old son remained in the water and managed to retrieve the boat.

The Aults were visiting the Lawrence Mazza family at the time of the accident. Mr. Ault is a brother-in-law of Mr. Mazza.

Senior Citizens Say THANKS

The program, two years old this fall, entitles the holder of the pass to complimentary admission to all activities and programs sponsored by the high school.

There are many enthusiastic holders of the Senior Citizen Lifetime Pass who are more than willing to praise the program. "I had no idea so much was going on at the high school. I'm sorry I didn't start going earlier!" said one petite lady as she emerged from last Spring's high school production of the Wizard of Oz, "and besides," she continued, "I feel that I'm getting something for my tax money." One man who shows more enthusiasm for the Sequoit basketball team than do some of the students, "It's great to go to the games. You get so involved with the kids, I've even caught myself worrying about next Monday's assignments."

If you are interested in applying for the Senior Citizen Lifetime Pass you will find a convenient order form printed in this issue of THE ANTIOCH NEWS. You may also apply for the pass at the main office of the high school on any regular school day from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

SOCIAL NOTES

by Del Jahneke

Among the 400 guests of the newly opened Wickes Lumber Company at Gurnee, were the senior Ed Jahnekes, Beach Grove. Many contractors, builders, realtors and suppliers were present from the surrounding area to enjoy the delicious roast beef dinner "with all the trimmings", held at the Sheraton Inn in Waukegan. Afterwards, they heard talks from company officials and managers, and watched a film on the "Wonderful World of Wickes". Fabulous door prizes of refrigerators, stoves, siding for a home, panelling for a 12' x 12' room, etc., were given to a number of fortunate people. One lucky couple from Antioch, the Lawrence Thiels, Grass Lake, found themselves the proud owners of 1,000 feet of hardboard siding! This event took place on Tuesday, August 31.

John W. Horan of Antioch just discovered that he has won first prize with his Model A car in the Kenosha County Fair Parade, held on August 15. His car was judged the best in a contest of 1928 and older antique cars. Congratulations, Jack!

The Lakeside Rebekah Lodge 82 had scheduled their District Officers' Night for September 15, but due to unforeseen circumstances, the evening to honor their district officers now will be held on October 6 at 8 p.m. at the American Legion Home. At the recent meeting of the Antioch Rebekah Lodge, there was a "Draping of the Charter" for Mrs. Mary Runyard, a loyal member of long standing. Mrs. Clarence Larson, Noble Grand, conducted the meeting. A public card and bunco party will be sponsored by the Lodge at 12:30 p.m. on September 16 at the Antioch American Legion Home.

PASTOR SCHROEDER TO BE INSTALLED

The REV. KENT E. SCHROEDER will be installed on Sunday, September 12th at 3 P.M. as the Pastor of Faith Ev. Lutheran Church of Antioch.

Following the Installation Service, at 5 P.M., will be a Pot Luck Supper. At this time people will have a chance to meet Pastor Schroeder and his family.

BEWITCHING WITCHERY AT A.C.C.

From the darkness comes the sexy velvet sound of a woman's voice calling, "Pyewacket, Pyewacket!" and BELL, BOOK AND CANDLE, that old/new comedy about witches in Manhattan, comes to life once again at the Antioch Country Club Playhouse.

The Audience doesn't have to see Gillian, played by Barbara Ann Powers, to know she's beautiful, her voice has already told us that, and when the light comes up we're not disappointed. If Miss Powers and her delightful relatives are anywhere near what witches were really like this writer, for one, would like to go back and stomp his Puritan ancestors into the ground for having treated such a wonderful group of people in such a shameful way.

Lloyd Pedersen, who was most recently seen in PM&L's production of THE FANTAS-TICKS, does a very fine job of handling the somewhat "square" role of Shep Henderson, a young publisher who finds himself "bewitched" beyond his wildest fantasies.

Aunt Queenie, as portrayed by Mary Bright, is pure delight. She literally bubbles her way through the role and the audience bubbles right along with her. Miss Bright joined the cast at the country club after completing a successful run at Shady Lane Playhouse in Maringo.

Another member of the cast of PM&L's THE FANTAS-TICKS is Ron Koules in the role of Gillian's brother, Nicky. This reviewer has seen BELL, BOOK AND CANDLE more times than he cares to remember and has always come away trying to figure out some way in which the role of Nicky could be eliminated from the script. Not so this time. Ron has turned Nicky from the usual "spoiled brat" role to that of a flower-child/demi-warlock whom you look forward to seeing come back on-stage.

Steve Gilman rounds out a well-balanced cast in the role of Sid Redlitch, a writer who has stumbled into the world of hexes and spells, only to find its just a bit more than he can handle.

Of all the shows put together by J. J. Butler, producer-director of the Country Club Theatre, this strikes me as being one of the best. The Troupe is doing a really commendable job under adverse conditions and deserves a great deal more support than they are receiving. BELL, BOOK AND CANDLE is scheduled to run for two more weekends, Friday and Saturday nights. You'll find it a truly delightful evening of entertainment.

Review by
K. Smouse

Lloyd Pedersen of Antioch is featured in the leading role of "Shep Henderson" in BELL BOOK AND CANDLE, a comedy about witchcraft, which opened at the Antioch Country Club Playhouse last weekend and continues for three more weeks. Antioch

"Betty Frank in concert"

"BETTY FRANK IN CONCERT" describes the event which will take place at the PM&L Theater on September 10th and 11th, but it certainly does not describe the mood of the evening.

The pert and out-going brunette who will present her songs and herself this weekend will break down the barriers between the audience and the stage the minute she begins to sing.

The result will be an evening of stories in lyric and verse describing everything from a man's search for a bottle of wine, to the search for a lost love.

Miss Frank, a music major enrolled at Barat College in Lake Forest and 1966 graduate of Antioch High School has very definite ideas about the power of music.

"For me, music is the easiest way to communicate feelings that I have and that other people have had," reflected Miss Frank.

Miss Frank will be joined on stage by four friends and fellow musicians including Mitzi and John Jamnick on Piano, James Fraher on back-up guitar and Roger Sorensen on bass.

Both concerts will begin at 8:30 and tickets will be $2.00 for all seats. For reservations call 395-9702.

Other installing officers were Mrs. T. Kinney; Mrs. William Schultz; Mrs. Thomas Rizzo, Lake Zurich; Mrs. Lillian Watters, Grayslake; and Mrs. Herbert Gleason.

Mrs. Hogue welcomed the 350 persons there and introduced her new officers, installing officers, relatives, friends, a special guest Mrs. Angeline Powell of Wheaton, 11th District president; and Mrs. Ray Rathmann of Antioch, second Division Vice President. Mrs. Hogue then announced her appointments of Mrs. Herbert Gleason as parliamentarian; Miss Sandra Brady, Gurnee, and Mrs. James Rainie, Round Lake, as district color bearers. Included in her thirty district chairmanships are Mrs. Edward Jahneke who will be starting her tenth consecutive year as district communications chairman; and Mrs. Ray Rathman, serving her second term as district junior activities chairman, both of Antioch.

Break In At Lyons & Ryon

A break in at Lyons and Ryan Ford, Rte 173, Antioch, was reported on the morning of September 1.

Police Chief Davis said that the person or persons entered through the rear of the building.

Damage was done to various vending machines. The cash register in the front office was forced open and small change taken.

Gambling Reported

Gambling was reported at the Lakeside Restaurant on August 29, 1971. The alleged gambling was reported to the Antioch Police Department by Mr. John Wall.

Mr. Wall stated that three men were at the main counter playing a game known as "dollar bill poker".

Before the police could arrive on the scene, the subjects involved were gone.

DENMAN RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT OF F.L.B.A.

Officials of the farmer-owned cooperative that provides long-term loans at low rates hope they can maintain—or lower—interest rates in the year ahead.

Robert Coots, manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Woodstock, told 250 annual meeting guests last week that the present loan rate is 7½% and that he believes with the "New economics" imposed by President Nixon, the possibility of an increase in rates is lessened.

But he expressed the belief that the possibility of a decline in rates is minimized as well by the President's overall economic policies. "We are making loans at 7½%, and loans which were made at a higher rate during the high cost of money have been lowered in keeping with our organization's policy," he summarized.

Don Stoxen, Harvard, was re-elected a director for three years. At the re-organization meeting of the board, Kenneth Denman, Lake Villa, was re-elected President and Stoxen was re-elected vice president. Other directors include Edgar Kirchhoff, Harvard; Frank Meyers, Belvidere; and Gene Simes, Hebron.

A $1 million increase in loans outstanding has been achieved with 11 fewer borrowers than a year ago, an indication that farmers are taking larger loans to meet the growing requirements to finance farming today.

The FLBA of Woodstock serves farmers in Boone, Lake and McHenry counties and is administered by a five-man board of farmers.

They may do so by filling in the application forms sent home in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the superintendents office in the school. Applications may be submitted any time during the school year. The form itself is simple to complete and requests information needed to determine economic need based on the income and number of persons in the family and any unusual circumstances or hardships which affect the family's ability to pay for school lunches.

BOY SCOUTS AGE REQUIREMENTS CHANGED

Any boy who has completed the fifth grade or who is 11 years old can, with the approval of his parents or guardian, now become a Boy Scout, according to Adminal Alban Weber, President of the Northeast Illinois Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Formerly, boys had to be 11 years old to join a Boy Scout group, but the Executive Board of the national organization has changed the membership requirement. A boy can now join the Boy Scouts, even if he is younger than 11, as long as he has completed the fifth grade.

The Northeast Illinois Council serves the North Shore communities of Cook County, as well as most of Lake County. The Council was recently enlarged with the addition of the former Oak Plain Council, which served the greater Waukegan-North Chicago Area. The Council expects to be serving more than 16,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers in some 440 groups by the end of the year, according to Adminal Weber.

SELF WILL? NOT ME!

How important are motives and standpoints to individual progress?

This is a question to be considered Sunday at Christian Science church services in a Lesson-Sermon entitled, "Substance."

Selections to be read from the Bible include the following: "Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? ... But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth."

From SCIENCE AND HEALTH WITH KEY TO THE SCRIPTURES this citation will be read: "To ascertain our progress, we must learn where our affections are placed and whom we acknowledge and obey as God. If divine Love is becoming nearer, dearer, and more real to us, matter is then submitting to Spirit. The objects we pursue and the spirit we manifest reveal our standpoint, and show what we are winning."

First Church of Christ, Scientist at Beacon Hill, Rte. 173 & Harden, Antioch, Ill., holds Sunday services at 11 a.m. Everyone is welcome.

BARAT COLLEGE ANNOUNCES

SURVEY COURSES

"American Painting, From the Colonial to the Contemporary Period", a six-week art course will be taught by Dr. Suzanne Epstein, assistant professor of art at Barat College, Lake Forest. The non-credit survey course will be given from 10:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. on Thursdays starting October 7 through November 11. There are no prerequisites and women in the community are urged to attend.

The course is the third in a highly-successful series developed by Dr. Epstein and the college, to acquaint local-area women with trends in art. Last year European painting was spotlighted.

This six-week survey of American Painting will cover the highlights in American art. Barat College has scheduled the course so that women with school-age children will be home in time to give lunches. For those with pre-schoolers above the age of two, Barat College students will provide baby-sitting service at a charge of $1.00 per session.

The six-week course is $24.00. To register, send your name and address along with a check or money order to "American Painting Art History Course", Public Relations Department, Barat College, 700 Westleigh Road, Lake Forest, Illinois 60045.

BINGO Applications

County Clerk, Grace Mary Stern today announced that her office will have full responsibility for processing Bingo applications in Lake County.

According to Mrs. Stern, only licensed organizations will be permitted to conduct Bingo games. These include not-for-profit organizations which have been in existence 5 years before applying for a license. The fee for the license is $200.

The Illinois Department of Revenue, responsible for the administration of Bingo, will receive 10 per cent of the gross proceeds of the games. The money will be divided equally between the Mental Health and Common School Funds.

Bingo will not be legal until October 1. Any organization or individual conducting or participating in Bingo games before that date will be subject to penalties.

Violation of the law is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of $500 or a year's imprisonment or both.

"My office is eager to begin assisting our local organizations planning to apply for Bingo licenses. Applications will be available on or before September 15th. We will be happy to answer any questions which applicants may have," Mrs. Stern said.

For Bingo information, applicants may contact the Lake County Clerk's Office, Lake County Administrative Building, Waukegan. The telephone number is 689-6660.

FINE ARTS COMPLEX AT ILL WESLEYAN

BLOOMINGTON, ILL.—Ground was broken on Sept. 2, 1971 in a brief informal ceremony for Illinois Wesleyan University's $3,000,000 Fine Arts Complex.

"The ground breaking represents nearly three years effort to provide modern facilities for all three schools of fine arts," Dr. Robert S. Eckley, president of Illinois Wesleyan University, said.

New buildings will be constructed on either side of McPherson Theatre which houses the School of Drama. They are expected to be ready for occupancy in the fall of 1973.

One will be a new music building, which will be connected to Presser Hall, the School of Music. It will also contain space for an experimental theatre.

The second building will house the School of Art, which is now housed in several older buildings on the campus.

Renovation of Presser Hall, already in progress, is part of the overall project.

The complex will be financed by a federal grant of $824,000, a $2 million loan to the university and university funds. The university will receive a federal subsidy for interest charges in excess of 3 percent annually on the loan.

A.C.C.W. CONVENTION

The convention of the Chicago Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women will open on Thursday, September 16 at 9:30 a.m. at McCormick Place. The theme of the Convention will be set forth by two eminent speakers, John Cardinal Cody, Archbishop of Chicago, and Mrs. Lenore LaFont Romney.

Mrs. Romney will speak to the "Challenge of the Modern Woman", her role, her contribution, her future in the making of a better world. Mrs. Romney is a born "doer", intensely interested in the social and human problems of our times. Her own contributions as a leader in civic affairs, social service, education, mental health and the arts, are testimony to everything in which she believes. A panel of women representing various aspects of the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women's social action program will lead discussion on Mrs. Romney's presentation.

A special highlight of the Convention will be the presentation for vote of Resolutions of the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women on Friday, September 17, at 2:00 p.m. These Resolutions will serve as sign and symbol to identify the purpose and the social action program of the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women for the coming year, and to identify the relationship of A.C.C.W. to other Religious and Civic Communities.

The electric dryer... it doesn't take you to the cleaners.

What do you look for in a home appliance? Dependability, of course. And that's what you get with an electric dryer. Why? Because an electric dryer is 100% electric. Everything works together, on one source of energy. With a gas dryer you're mixing power sources, so you do some adapting. Like adding an electric ignition system to start the gas burning. Extra switches and relays control it and turn it off at the right time. All this extra equipment is the reason why you pay about $40 more for a gas dryer than you would for a comparable electric dryer. Forty dollars, just for a lot of extra stuff to go wrong.

If you don't want your friendship with your local repairman to deteriorate from overexposure, then look into the brighter, more dependable drying that electricity has to offer.

REIMER WINS IRA

SATURDAY, SEPT. 4, 1971: Johnny Reimer, Wisconsin super modified stock car driver has won the 1971 Interstates Racing Association Championship at the Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmot, Wisconsin.

Actually, Reimer clinched the Championship here on Saturday night August 28 when 1971 Defending Champion, Whitey Harris, Lake Villa, finished only 2nd to feature race winner, Jim Bozeman, Waukegan.

While Harris was chasing close to Bozeman all the way through the race, Reimer was having trouble getting up any closer than 5th in the feature. However, fifth was close enough to earn him a margin of 120 points which are more points than could be made by Harris in the one race remaining.

It wasn't until the third race of the 1971 season at Wilmot that Reimer won his first feature of the season there. Since that time he has won six features there out of 14 races completed.

For Reimer it was his first Championship at Wilmot even though he has won Championships at Waukegan, Rockford, and Hales Corners. The 1971 Championship at Wilmot will carry with it a more prestigious significance than any other Championship he or any other driver has ever earned. This Title will long be remembered as the last ever won by a driver on the "old" Wilmot track for in 1972 when stock car racing resumes in this sleepy little hamlet of only 300 population on any night but a race night, a new track will be opened and the memories, victories and experiences of the old track will become a colorful page in stock car racing history.

LAKE GENEVA, SUNDAY, SEPT. 5, 1971: Defending Champion Whitey Harris, Lake Villa, clinched at least a fourth of the IRA Season Track Titles for super modifieds at the Lake Geneva Raceway on Sunday night, September 5 as he finished only fifth in the 30 lap feature race.

Going into the feature Harris had only a 14 point lead on Reimer who had set fast time for the night in a Champions try to sweep all IRA Tracks in the season. Reimer wound up only third behind Roger Otto, Burlington, who actually could be credited for saving the win and Championship for Harris. Had Reimer been able to get around Otto for even second place, he would have won the Track Championship.

Jim Boehles, Hales Corners was the feature race winner with a lead all the way from his pole position starting spot. Reimer quickly came from the back starting position but couldn't even get into a position that would give him a good chance to pass Otto even though he was always on his bumper.

It was just about the same for Harris who tried to move around Al Schill, Frankville but couldn't get the fast job done. Schill almost lost control in one corner and Harris raced alongside of him but Schill recovered to hold the advantage at the end of the back straightaway.

Eddie Loomis, Waukegan had trouble in qualifying and wound up winning the semi-feature and the first heat. Boehles also added a heat race to boost his point standings for the season to 7th position.

Other heat races were won by Bob Deldrich, McHenry and Otto. The special Dash For Cash Race with $100.00 going to the winner, was taken by Otto with Tom Anderson, and Reimer very close but no challenge for Otto who was at his best.

The postponed Season Championship race for Sportsman stock cars was won by Wes Eckert, Greenfield. Eckert had earlier won a heat race from a third starting position and was running laps more than two seconds faster than his qualifying time. Officials discussed this situation and placed Eckert in the 30 lap Championship race where he would have been had he ran laps in qualifying at his time in the heat.

Jack Ashenbrenner, Hales Corners was up to third in the race but spun, came back to second and then slowed to finish only fourth but it was good enough to assure him the Season Driver Championship for the IRA Sportsman Stock Cars at Lake Geneva.

This race ended the 1971 season for IRA races at Lake Geneva but racing on Saturday nights will continue there for two more weeks.

MONDAY, SEPT. 6, 1971: Johnny Reimer won both the 50 lap feature races here tonight in wind up super modified stock car action for the Interstates Racing Ass'n of Super modified stock cars. He had already won the Kenosha County Speedway Championship and the two wins tonight proved that he deserved the honor.

The race was run on Monday, Labor Day, following rain on the Saturday night that it had been scheduled or that would have ended the action. In winning Reimer won $570.00 in lap prize money in addition to another $480.00 in purse and another $150.00 in contingency money. Reimer took the lead in the first 50 from Bill Strom, West Allis on the 33rd lap. On the second 50, he went around Jim Sullivan, Fox Lake on the 12th lap to win with more than a straight-away lead over Roger Otto, Burlington, Strom, Ron Bergsma and Al Schill.

Many former drivers were on hand to join with the fans in recalling former days at the Wilmot track. The group was headed by Bay Darnell, Deerfield USAC late model stock car driver who had previously won many races here. He finished 4th in a USAC Late model race in Du Quion on Sunday. Starter Duane Swe-ney also visited the closing ceremonies for the track. He flags USAC races throughout the nation.

Tom Anderson, Antioch, had the honor of turning the fast time trial on the final night and Eddie Loomis, Waukegan, turned in the final lap of Qualifying.

Attendance was 4407 and the purse, including lap prize and accessory money was $5748.00

A new track will open in Wilmot in 1972 and many fans carried away with them tonight jars containing a remembrance of this track. The glass jars contained some of the famous clay that has been used for more than 20 years here which most say accounts for the excellent races presented.

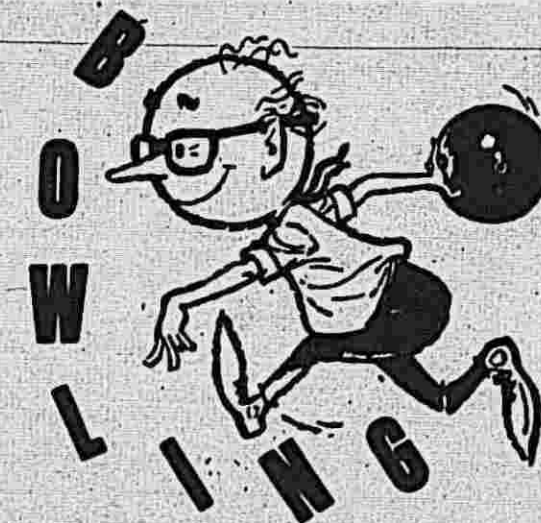

JOHNNY REIMER, Caledonia, won the 30 lap feature, the 4 lap trophy dash and the season Championship for the Interstates Racing Association of super modifieds at the Santa Fe Speedway in Willow Springs on Friday September 3.

It was his 14th feature race win on the IRA Super Circuit and his 3rd out of 5 races completed this season at Santa Fe. The IRA Supers return for a final 1971 Season race at the Santa Fe Speedway this Friday night, September 10, but that race will be on the half mile track and will not be counted toward season point standings.

Joe Moulis, McHenry was another double winner as he took the win in both the 15 lap semi-feature and the 1st 10 lap heat race. Other heats were won by Ron Bergsma and Al Schill.

Fast time was turned in by Jim Boehles, Hales Corners with a rapid 15.30 second lap. Otto was next with a 15.33 and Richard Hed, Sheboygan Falls was third with a 15.43. All 16 cars in the feature race turned in time trial runs in the 15 second bracket with only .65/100ths of a second separating the time for the 16 car field.

8-30-71-Sam's Old Hickory Inn started the season rolling 2586, winning two games from the Limerick Lounge. Earl Hogan 220-(583) for Old Hickory and Wally Ring 202-(567) for the Limerick Lounge.

Tommie Griffin started the season with a fine 256-(587) for Lamar's Lounge but his team dropped three games to A & J Bar of Camp Lake. Jack Violette 204-(553) for A & J.

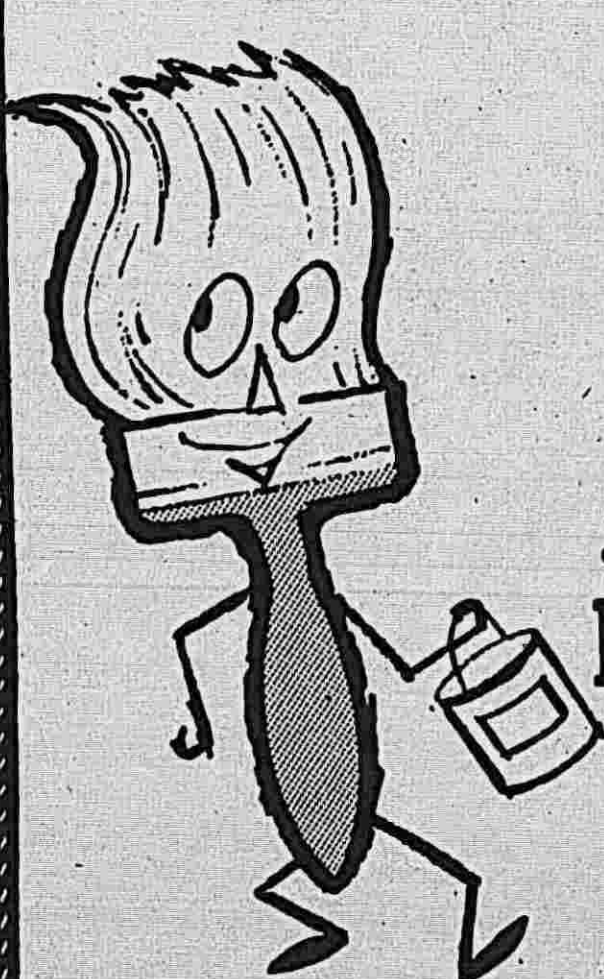

Bob Bolton started the season on a high note by leading the league with a very fine 226-218-202-(646), leading the Pub to a pair of wins over Open Door Tavern. "Sluggo" Werhan 190-(549) for Open Door.

The Village Inn of Twin Lakes rolled against Bruce and Kay's Tavern with Paul Heath 196-(530) pacing Village Inn to a pair of winning games over B.K.'s lead by John Klecki 201-(497).

Mark Turner 188-(520) let Red Arrow Tavern to a couple of wins from Kempf's Resort. Chuck Monroe 191-(488) for Kempf's.

The Arbor paced by Super Star Bill Portalski 180-(514) won three games from the Angels. Gene Wagner 156-(447) for the Angels.

Applications For Hunting Permit Season

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., Aug. 27, 1971—Applications for permits to hunt pheasants and geese on state-managed areas will be taken by the Illinois Department of Conservation beginning Sept. 1, according to Jim Lockart, Supervisor of the Division of Wildlife Resources. There are seven public shooting areas for hunting pheasants managed by the state and two for hunting geese.

The permit pheasant season will run from Nov. 13 to Dec. 5. The seven public shooting areas are: Chain O'Lakes, Carlyle Lake, Des Plaines, Green River, Iroquois County, Richland County and Shelby County.

The state area permit season for geese will be Nov. 16 through Dec. 31 or when the quota of 24,000 geese has been reached in Alexander, Jackson, Union and Williamson Counties. The goose areas will be closed Dec. 24 through Dec. 27. The two state-maintained goose areas are Horseshoe Lake and Union County public hunting areas. There is no hunting on Mondays at either of the state-owned goose areas.

"Hunters should give first and second choices of dates they would like to hunt," Lockart said. "Any applications received before Sept. 1 will be sent back to the hunter. Permit applications will also be taken across the counter at the State Office Building in Springfield; however, all applications taken will go to the end of that day's mail."

Lockart reminded state area hunters that they must also obtain the regular Illinois goose hunter's permit, new this season.

Lockart also said that the state would not operate any duck management areas on a permit basis this year.

Applications for pheasant and goose permits should be sent to: Illinois Department of Conservation, Permit Office, 400 S. Spring St., Springfield, Illinois 62706.

26—New Swim Records Tallied

The cold weather didn't deter about sixty swim team members and many parents last week as the boys and girls who made up the 1971 team went to work on the record books. Almost every record was seriously threatened and when the last race had finished there were 26 brand-new records. All new record holders received a gold medal from the State Bank of Antioch, the team sponsor. In addition, the Bank awarded ribbons for first through fourth place in every race.

Heading the list of record-holders was 16 year old Mike Muro, who has led the way all season. He once again was a triple winner, re-setting all records he set last year in back, fly, and individual medley. Jenny Schmidt also came in with three records in the 9/10 year old group. Mike's younger brother, Pat, was a double winner. Other doubles were scored by Jack Fields, Johnny Schmidt, Judy Houghton, Mary St. Pierre, Suzy Berry, and Jody Fields. Rounding out the output of records were Greg Shepard, Dave Walpole, Dave Berry, Bob Dodd, Linda Lagerstrom, and Barb Dodd.
